REQUIRED DOCUMENTS FOR all CIVIL (LEGAL) WEDDINGS

Valid passports. In case the bride's name is not the same in her passport than in her birth certificate and she wants to get married with the same name of her birth certificate she should bring her birth certificate (original) apostilled by the government of her country and translated into Spanish by a Mexican official translator (stamped). Driver license will not be accepted by the official.

If the bride is widowed or divorced (in case her passport has her ex husbands last name) it is necessary to bring her birth certificate (original) apostilled by the government of her country and translated into Spanish by a Mexican official translator (stamped), according to Mexican Law the bride must be 12 months divorced before remarrying. In case the bride's name is the same as her maiden name in the passport - she can use the passport as official ID and will marry as single (In Mexico after being divorce the marital status is single) - no translations of birth certificate are required.

If the groom is widowed or divorced no additional documents are required (as his name do not changed)

Tourist Card. Clients get this card upon arrival at the airport in Mexico .

Medical Documentation: Blood tests (Sexually Transmitted diseases - VDRL, HIV, Blood Type) and medical certification stating that all results were negative and patient is physically in good health. Blood tests have to be done here in Mexico, we have a clinic at the Resort - (approximate cost: 90.00 USD per person).

Four witnesses: two for the bride and two for the groom with valid passport (driver license) will not be accepted by the official. The witnesses have to be older than 18 years. All witnesses must come in person to the appointment with the wedding coordinator with their valid passport and tourist card at least 4 labor days prior to the wedding date.
